RE: Entry into the national stage in the United States of America of the international application PCT/AU2003/000816.

I recently submitted a transmittal letter to the USPTO, a form PCT-1390, concerning a submission under 35 U.S.C. 371 in respect of the international application PCT/AU2003/000816. Attached to the transmittal letter to the USPTO was a check for the amount of $1,000 to cover the cost of the entry into the national stage in the USA. However, an error was made when calculating the fee and attached is a check for $50, being an additional amount of payment needed for entry into the national stage in the USA of the international application PCT/AU2003/000816. A transmittal letter concerning a submission under 35 U.S.C. 371 is attached, and is marked as a second submission, referring to the additional payment of $50. The attached transmittal letter is not a replacement for the previously sent transmittal letter. If the USPTO policy is to regard a transmittal letter that is marked as a second submission as being a replacement transmittal letter for a transmittal letter that was a first submission, then the attached transmittal letter should be ignored.
